La danza cerró en Alerre la más exitosa edición de 'Cosecha de invierno'

La compañía de Pilar Torcal y Jan Möller realizarán una exhibición de bailes de salón a las 12.00 horas de mañana domingo en Alerre.

La tercera edición del programa 'Cosecha de invierno' que organiza la Comarca Hoya de Huesca/Plana de Uesca llega a su conclusión mañana domingo con una exhibición de bailes de salón de competición en Alerre. La compañía de Pilar Torcal y Jan Möller iniciará su actuación a las doce del mediodía en el pabellón municipal de la localidad.

Este acto, que servirá de clausura de 'Cosecha de invierno', contará con la intervención de José M^a Zamora, vicepresidente de la Hoya de Huesca, y Natalia Ciprés, consejera comarcal de Cultura.

La actuación, que ha servido también de punto de reunión de todos los alumnos que participan en las clases de baile de salón que desarrolla en varios municipios de la comarca desde el Servicio de Deportes de la Hoya de Huesca, se iniciará con una breve muestra del grupo infantil de Ayerbe, tras el que se procederá a la clausura de 'Cosecha de invierno' con palabras de las autoridades y, finalmente, el desarrollo del espectáculo de Pilar Torcal y Jan Möller.

Sobre un espacio semejante al utilizado en las competiciones de bailes de salón, las siete parejas componentes de la compañía irán desgranando diferentes tipos y estilos de baile y danza de competición.

"Este cierre se concibió como una artística excusa para reunir, por primera vez, a las numerosas personas que este año están recibiendo cursos de bailes de salón por toda la comarca. Ha sido un boom y queríamos regalarles también una buena demostración de danza a niveles de competición. De este modo poner de manifiesto que la comarca se mueve con multitud de actividades de todo tipo, culturales y deportivas especialmente, que llegan a todos los rincones de la Hoya. Así que este domingo nos juntaremos en Alerre gentes de una gran parte de los cuarenta municipios que conforman esta comarca", comenta Natalia Ciprés, consejera comarcal de Cultura.

Desde la organización, antes de poder cerrar las conclusiones definitivas de esta tercera edición, ya se muestra la enorme satisfacción por los resultados, a todos los niveles: calidad de los espectáculos, participación de público, colaboración de los ayuntamientos, difusión del programa y dinamización de la población.

CLAUSURA DE LA TERCERA EDICIÓN

Una elegante exhibición de bailes de salón cierra Cosecha de Invierno
Los responsables de la Comarca de la Hoya, satisfechos del resultado

HUESCA.- La tercera edición de Cosecha de Invierno, que organiza el área de Cultura de la Comarca Hoya de Huesca/Plana de Uesca, echó el telón con el acto de clausura celebrado el pasado domingo en Alerre. Una exhibición de baile deportivo de salón llevado a cabo por siete parejas de la compañía de Pilar Torcal y Jan Möller llenó de color, ritmo y elegancia una cita a la que acudieron alrededor de cuatrocientas personas, muchas de ellas alumnas de los cursos de baile que el Servicio Comarcal de Deportes desarrolla en una veintena de localidades.

Público de Riglos, Albero Alto, Ayerbe, Loarre, Plasencia del Monte, Panzano, Tierz, Sariñena, Huesca, Chimillas o el propio Alerre interrumpió con ovaciones varias de las evoluciones de los bailarines participantes, cuya actuación fue introducida por un tan breve como simpático aperitivo de danza, ejecutado por el grupo infantil de baile de Ayerbe.

José María Zamora, vicepresidente de la Comarca, y Natalia Ciprés, consejera comarcal de Cultura, clausuraron esta tercera edición de Cosecha de Invierno. El primero agradeció a la consejera y a su departamento la buena labor desarrollada, y la segunda mostró su enorme satisfacción "por la calidad de los grupos que han intervenido y por la acogida tenida en todos y cada uno de los dieciséis municipios en los que se ha programado esta muestra. Más de trescientos artistas han tomado parte en la veintena de actuaciones realizadas, sin grandes contratiempos, en dieciséis de los cuarenta municipios que forman parte de la Comarca Hoya de Huesca/Plana de Uesca".
